

Here's one cotton comfort that doesn't "pack down" after it's been in use a short while. It is called the "Maish." We were curious to know why the kept fluffy so long. We found that the filling in Maish Comforts is made of extra-long curled cotton of finest quality, but woven differently from any comfort we have ever seen—woven by a special process which absolutely prevents "packing," "bunching," and "lumping."

Maish Cotton Down Comfort

We found, too, that Maish Comforts were absolutely sanitary, made of the purest materials, under ideal conditions, and that they were twice as warm as any ordinary comfort of equal weight. We believe these are just the sort of comforts you would like to put in your baby's crib, or on your children's bed, as well as your own.

And you are sure to like the pretty covers in a variety of pretty patterns in lovely art shades. Step into our bedding department some day and ask to see our assortment of Maish Comforts.

Harold Corwin, who was formerly employed by the Granite Mutual Insurance company, passed through the city yesterday on his way to Burlington, where he is stationed at present. Mr. Corwin enlisted in the regular army about two months ago and has been spending the past few days at his home in Chelsea.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See the new waist models at Abbott's. Montpelier Red Men's dance Thursday night, Oct. 4.—adv.

Mrs. E. H. Clark of Perry street is visiting friends in Boston.

Food sale, all kinds, Congregational vestry, Saturday afternoon.—adv.

Buy a good piano to-day and pay in installment if you like. Bailey's Music Rooms, 14 Elm street.

The Clover club will meet with Mrs. H. O. Worthen, Keith avenue, to-morrow (Friday) at 2:30 p. m.

Just arrived, another barrel of those famous horehound candies at Russell's, the Red Cross Pharmacy.

The guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet this evening in the church at 7:30. A full attendance is desired.

Mrs. Josie Relation of 35 Railroad street, who has been visiting her brother, the chief of police of Northfield, has returned home.

Mrs. Bessie Hayford of Montpelier was brought to the Barre City hospital yesterday for an operation, which she underwent this morning.

Regular meeting of the A. O. H., on Thursday night at 7 o'clock. The second of the 45 game series will be played after the meeting.

John A. Sparrow, who has been making one of his regular calls on Barre friends, returned this morning to his home in Boston.

Rev. J. B. Reardon, Frank W. Jackson and Alexander Duncan were in Warren last evening to attend the annual meeting of the seventh district of Odd Fellows.

One of the not infrequent spells of inactivity has been noted at the central fire station lately, as more than a month has elapsed since a still or general alarm has been sounded.

A subscription of $115.70 for the war library fund was sent from Barre yesterday to Mrs. W. L. Wasson of Waterbury, who has charge of the campaign in Washington county.

G. U. Tiffany of East Berkshire, a dairy inspector whose field is largely in Franklin county, was a visitor in the city yesterday and to-day. He was accompanied here by E. W. Smith.

John R. Tierney has returned from the Royal Victoria hospital, where he underwent a serious operation on his right eye, which proved successful, gaining a little sight. He will return in one month, when he will have another slight operation, after which his sight will be much improved.

B. P. Shadrach has started work on the foundation of the building which he is to erect on a site just west of his store at 50 Brook street. He plans to build a modern structure which will be so arranged as to accommodate his mercantile business.

William Hurry of Long street, district deputy grand master of Masons, motored to East Montpelier last evening for an official visitation to Wyoming lodge, No. 80. Despite the unpromising weather, there was a good attendance and the district deputy was able to review satisfactorily the degree work of the Wyoming lodge members.

A series of war sermons similar in purport to a number of addresses delivered in the same church last year is to be inaugurated in the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening by Rev. Edgar Crossland, the pastor. In an attractively arranged sermon schedule the clergyman has outlined the basic reason for the sermons, which are to be preached as follows: Oct. 7, "The Truth About England"; Oct. 14, "Rheims Cathedral, Its Significance"; Oct. 21, "Canada, Our Ally"; Oct. 28, "Martin Luther and the Germany of To-day."

An interesting sidelight on the departure of Washington county men for the Ayer, Mass., cantonment yesterday is furnished in the case of Geome Gelpi, who was an alternate for Lauri Siren, the alleged deserter. Unlike Fred Mobius of Warren, he will not face the possibility of fighting his own uncle overseas, but he may find himself thrown in with a brother who is fighting for the same cause, although under the colors of Italy. When the sunny kingdom entered the war two of Mr. Gelpi's brothers enlisted. One of them was killed in battle and at last accounts the other was still doing his bit.

Among the first to feel the effects of the new imposts specified in the war tax bill which the president is expected to sign immediately are tobacco dealers and locally merchants who handle cigars, cigarettes and smoking and chewing tobacco are getting ready for the first visit of the revenue officer by inventorying their stocks. Hereafter sales of tobacco in various forms must be accounted separately and the larger dealers are feeling a multiplicity of problems in common fractions, as each package must be reckoned in ascertaining the weight of tobacco sold. Most of the popular priced tins of smoking tobacco contain one and one-fourth, one and one-half or two and three-fourths ounces. Coincident with the increase made necessary by the war tax came the announcement from jobbers and manufacturers to-day that the high cost of green leaf will mean another raise in cigar prices.

The United Missionary society of the Hedding church held its annual business meeting in the church parlor Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 3. The women's home society elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. L. D. Martin; vice-president, Mrs. W. E. Perkins; recording secretary, Mrs. G. C. Carpenter; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lyman Taft; treasurer, Mrs. Lyman Taft. During the year just closed, the women's foreign missionary society has nearly doubled its membership and financially it has been unusually successful. Much credit is due to Mrs. C. S. Andrews, the retiring president, who has served a term of eight years. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. C. S. Cushman; vice-president, Mrs. C. H. Kenerson; recording secretary, Mrs. Sullivan; corresponding secretary, Mrs. S. H. Barnes; treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Perkins.

Among the guests arriving at Hotel Barre last night and this morning were the following people: Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Lovell, Harry Reed of Bellows Falls, J. D. Silver of Cleveland, O., Julius Mendelsohn of Pittsburg, N. Y., F. S. Lovell of Hartford, A. T. Leighton of Portland, Me., R. C. Salloway of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinckley, Miss Anna Hinckley and Mrs. Charles Lill of Yarmouthport, Mass., W. B. Shattuck of Stockbridge, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Nye of North Montpelier, E. Crossman of New York, Mrs. R. K. Breed of Boston, E. O. Woodward of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Anthony, Mr. McDermott and chauffeur of New Bedford, Mass., H. J. Andrews of Rutland, S. A. Nott of Burlington, F. A. Winch of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hall of Sudbury, Conn., G. Y. Tiffany, E. W. Smith of East Berkshire, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson Dadd of New York, E. W. ## Have You Visited Our Garment Department?

You Have to be Especially Careful in Your Coat and Suit Selection This Season, Because Good Fabrics Are Scarce

The demand and line of the new silhouette conspire with the weather indications to crowd our coat department daily. What a coat season fashion has made it. Every woman who would be in vogue must have one of these fetching creations brought this fall. But the right coats are terribly scarce. The new ideas make a heavy demand for unusual materials, and as everybody knows, really good garment materials are hard to get.

Ladies' Tailored Suits

We are fortunate in securing garments from the best Suit and Coat makers of New York and Cleveland; we placed large orders early, and now have an unusually large display of the season's best Suit values at prices that are not so much higher in price than former seasons. The quality is the best and many of the models are very conservative, are built on straight, long lines, making a Suit that is graceful and stylish.

You will be more than pleased by these soft, silky new fabrics, so light and warm—developed in the shades now so sought after.

They are well worth seeing, whether you are wanting to buy or not.

Here you will find All-Wool Poplin Suits made in the season's best styles and in the best of shape, at only $20.00.

In the better Suit values that are made in such cloths as Velours, Broadcloths, Poplins, Serges, Burellas, and Rib-Radier cloths, you will find an assortment of styles and qualities at prices from $22.50 to $50.00. These are high-class Suits that will appeal to all who want the season's newest and best Suit values, and when you consider the length and fullness of the Coats to these Suits, you will be more than pleased with their values. We are anxious to show you the line.

In our Millinery Department you will find an assortment of the season's best and latest hat values. When you stop to consider the advance in price of all velvets and everything that goes in to make a good hat value you will be more than pleased with the values we can give you. Visit this department when in to see our suit and coat lines.

Matthew O'Hagan, who has been visiting relatives in East Barre for a few days, left yesterday for Albany, N. Y., where for some time he has been in the employ of the Flint Granite Co. Mr. O'Hagan has enlisted in the United States army and expects to be assigned to duty in the commissary department within a few days.

Alleged unsanitary conditions on the Sibley place west of the Central Vermont railroad tracks off Willey street are engaging the attention of the aldermanic health committee, and as the result of an investigation recently made it is possible that a clean-up may be made. Not long ago the charity and health committee inspected the premises and quickly came to the decision that improvements were in order. W. H. Jeffrey of the board of probate and charities was advised of conditions on the property when an investigation of the Everett Hood camp in Berlin was made some weeks ago. It is stated by the city officials that 15 cows and a horse occupy the lower section of a building erected by Mr. Sibley, the man who used to conduct the city's garbage business, and that the upper story is used as a dwelling place for the owner and his family of five. On the same floor, according to the investigators, the poultry end of the Sibley business is conducted.

Miss Caroline Swift of Middlesex, a former matron of the Barre City hospital, who has been passing the summer in Vermont, left last evening for Kansas City, where she has accepted a position as superintendent of nurses in the Wesley hospital, an institution containing 90 beds and carrying a staff of 60 nurses.

Miss Swift recently pursued a special course of training in Grace hospital, Detroit, Mich.

Echoes of the convention of American cemetery superintendents, held in Barre last August, are still heard. One letter received by an active member of the entertainment committee from a superintendent in the far West says in part: "From every viewpoint, the Barre convention was the best ever. To me, personally, the location of Barre, the entertainment, and the good people we met, all combine to make this trip the finest I ever had. The memory of the trip will remain with us a long time, and it is our earnest wish that before the pleasant memories shall have faded, we shall have an opportunity to return and renew our acquaintances in Barre." Says another: "I must take the time to congratulate you on the grand success of the entertainment in Barre. It seems that nothing was left undone which would add to the comfort and pleasure of those attending the convention, and I am certain that I voice the sentiment of everyone who was fortunate enough to be there."
